VIRGINIANS WIN.

THEY TAKE THE SECOND GAME FROM VERMONT.

A Small Crowd in Attendance-The Best Playing Decidedly in the Home Team's Favor-The Features

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, April 2.-Special.)-The Virginia boys defeated the Vermont 'Varsity here this afternoon in the second game between the two teams by the score of 12 to 4. The players lacked the encouragement of a crowd, as the defeat which the visitors received yesterday rather took interest from the second contest. Sensational plays were not as frequent as on yesterday, and the best playing was decidedly in Virginia's favor. The home team batted in fine style, securing sixeen hits, while their opponents only got six. The star event of the game was beautiful catch by Captain Bonney, of the Virginia team, in the eighth inning, a fly being knocked by Fan, which barely issed going over the left-field fence, but was brought 'down by Bonney just before it hit the fence. The playing of Keefe, for Virginia, at short was good O'Keefe, for Virginia, at short was good throughout, and the double play made by him, together with Nalle and Hunt, was among the leading features of Virginia's game. The pitching of both Miner and Mellor was good, while the catching of Huger was first-class. Fan, for the visitors, made an excellent stop of a hot liner by Martin, in the sixth inning, but it was too fast to field in time to put but it was too fast to field in time to put Martin out at first. The Vermont team left this afternoon directly after the game for Washington, where they will play Georgetown University to-morrow. Following is the

LOUDOUN COUNTY.

Supposed to Have Been Drowned-Personal Notes.

LEESBURG, VA., April 2 .- (Special.)-Mr. Joseph F. Fry, a citizen of Loudoun, residing on Heater's Island, in the Potomac, near the Point of Rocks, eft the latter place on Tuesday of last week in his skiff, and rowed to the island. Nothing was seen or heard of him afterwards, though the boat was him afterwards, though the boat was found at Noland's Ferry, several miles below. It is believed that he fell into the river and was drowned. Search has been diligently made for the body, but without success. As the river has been very "flush" ever since, the body may have been carried to and over the Great Falls.

Mr. John A. Lynch, son of the editor
Washingtonian, who. of the Leesburg Washingtonian, who, with his family, removed several years ago to Mecklenburg county, has returned to his first love, and gone into business at Round Hill, his former home.

There have been sold this week several farms in the upper part of Loudoun, among them the Nichols farm, 308 acres, near Snickersville, at $25 per acre, and that of William H. Beavers, near Yellow school-house, for $2.50 per acre. These are low prices, as compared with their value five years ago. Mr. John H. Alexander, who ten years ago went to California to reside, has urned, with his family, to Leesburg, where they were welcomed yesterday.

Callie, the sprightly daughter Mr. and John Hough, of Hillsboro', fatally burned on Thursday. Her mother had left her for a few minutes. in order to fetch some water from the spring, and returning, found the child in flames. With the water in the bucket she extinguished the flames, but the lit-

Blood Pure?

Is it? Then take Ayer's Sarsaparilla and keep it so. Isn't it? Then take Ayer's Sarsaparilla and make it so. One fact is positively established and that is that Ayer's Sarsaparilla will purify the blood more perfectly, more economically and more speedily than any other remedy in the market. There are fifty years of cures behind this statement; a record no other remedy can show. You waste time and money when you take anything to purify the blood except Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

ANNIVERSARY OF EVACUATION.

Withdrawal of Confederates from the City Thirty-Two Years Ago.

To-day is the thirty-second anniversary of the evacuation of this city by the Confederates and of its occupation by the Federal troops ..

Little is known historically of the facts in reference to the withdrawal of the Confederate forces in front of Richmond on the north side of James river. The writer, who was a participant in the scenes, will endeavor to give a very brief account of it. Major-General G. W. C. account of it. Major-General G. W. C.
Lee was in immediate command of the Confederate army, with headquarters at Chaffin's Farm. Sunday night the troops were withdrawn from the front and crossed over the river on pontoon bridges at "Wilton," the well-known homestead of Colone! William C. Knight. After the south side General Lee, with two of his couriers, including the writer, halted, and remained at this post until all the outer pickets had crossed, when the bridges were ordered to be cut away.

While waiting for the pickets the powder magazines at Chaffin's and Drewry's Bluffs and the gunboats the river were sounding loud acclaims by being exploded. Thus it will be observed that the right of way to this city was now unobstructed, and the entrance of the advance guard of the Union army into Richmond on the evening of the 3d of April, 1865, began.

Here are a few facts as remembered by Major Dick Walker and told to the writer in connection with that event:

"I was, as you well remember, a member of the Richmond City Council for several years during the war. On Sunday afternoon, April 2 1885, the Council was called together to consider grave questions. The Secretary of War notified us in writing that the city was then about to be evacuated. The question of the destruction of all the liquor in the stores of Richmond was discussed at great length, and on a vote it was decided to appoint committees of citizens to go about destroying the liquor at once I voted against the proposition, because I foresaw that it would likely entail a great debt upon Richmond, and I did not fear that the Union army would be allowed to break into stores and gat drunk—belleving they would be well in hand.

"After the work of the session was over it was agreed that the Mayor and members of the Council would meet at the City Hall at daybreak and go down in carriages, to be provided, and meet the general in command of the Union army and surrender the city to him, and ask for necessary protection etc. I went home about midnight but did not go to be do but sat up and talked with my family until about 4 o'clock, when I repaired to the City Hall.

"When I reached the hall. I was told that Mr. Joseph Mayo, them Mayor of the city. Mr. James A. Scott, and a few other members of the Council, had already gone down the River road to meet the advancing Union troops. Not finding any self walked down to the corner of Thirteenth and Main streets. We stood there for some time, looking down towards Rocketts for the enemy's advance. About 17:30 we saw them coming, about three or four squares below the Old Market About this time. General Breckinridge and his staff, passed down in a gallop towards Mayo's bridge, on fire, came back, and as they turned into Main street. We stood there for some time, looking down towards where General Breckinridge and his staff left Richmond by Mayo's bridge. This is not true, and I will swear to the statement I have more dental surfer in the real three will have been and the stree etc.

a short time hundreds of troops of "In a short time hundreds of troops of the Union army were pouring into the Capitol Square—the city on fire, bridges burning and vessels blown up. But this little sketch is enough for the present.

"I have always thought that among these sixteen Union soldiers there was one man who was well acquainted with Richmond who directed the movement of the squad."

"If all the members of the City Council

Of all the members of the City Counci at the evacuation of Richmond only Mr. E. A. J. Clopton and Major R. F. Walker are believed to be alive. J. P. W.

Convicts May Go West.

Plans are being discussed for the organization of a society to extend help to convicts of the State Penitentiary at the expiration of their terms of imprisonment. The promoters are the same gentlemen who have been so careful that the convicts should receive proper religious instruction during their incarceration.

When Bishop Talbott, of Idaho, visited Richmond some time ago he said that there was an excellent opportunity for convicts to start life again, with even chances, out West. A man's past is not referred to. If the organization is perfected, its chief object will be to furnish ex-convicts with transportation to the West, and to secure work for them upon their arrival at their new homes.

Officer Minor to Marry.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Katle R. Farmer to Mr. Percy G. Minor. The ceremony will take place at Park-Place Methodist Episcopal church Wednesday, April 14th. Miss Farmer is an attractive and charming young lady, who has won a large circle of friends. Mr. Minor is a member of the police force. He was for some time a member of the Fire-Alarm Department, and is one of Captain Thomas's best men.
